Romeoville Area Chamber of Commerce Announces New Executive Director

ROMEIOVILLE, IL (August 28, 2017) –The Romeoville Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors is pleased to announce the recent hire of Margaret Westlove as the Executive Director for the organization. In addition to her Chamber of Commerce experience, Westlove brings with her over ten years of marketing, communication, event planning and business development skills.

“The executive director position is responsible for providing leadership and continuity to members, volunteers and staff in carrying out its mission and goals as well as growing the Chamber membership,” said Tom Hess, Chair, Romeoville Area Chamber of Commerce. “Given her experience, innovative ideas and confidence, the board is certain that Margaret will be able to do just that.”

The Romeoville Area Chamber of Commerce represents over 220 members. Westlove succeeds Michelle Jarnutowski and will start her new position as Executive Director on August 28.
